Starlight Racing Update

Though the excitement of the Triple Crown has passed, we have plenty to look forward to this summer.

Sombeyay (Into Mischief - Teroda) is pointing toward the Sanford Stakes (G3) on July 21st after a game runner-up effort in his stakes debut in the Tremont Stakes.

In addition, we have a stable full of promising two-year-olds training towards their debut on both the East Coast with Todd Pletcher and on the West Coast with Bob Baffert. It is sure to be an exciting summer and we may get to witness some future stars.

After an impressive 2017 season during which StarLadies Racing won 30% of their starts with an in-the-money percentage of 60%, the success has continued this year - in 2018 they are winning at a 50% clip!

Partnership Update

With Justify's Triple Crown win, Starlight Racing could not be any more excited. Even as a minority partner, we ALL felt like WE won the Triple Crown- proving that fractional ownership does not dilute the experience of winning -- and that one horse can take thousands of people on the ride of a lifetime!

Join a winning team in 2018!
