CLOSER LOOK: Uncle Mo 14% with first-time starting juveniles; dam won a couple of $200K stakes at Indiana Downs and Remington Park but only ran in one sprint in her 17-race career; both sibs to race are winners with Mischiefful being a stakes-placed sprinter and Tiz Rye Time went over $290K in earnings when he won a first-level allowance race going 1 1/8-miles at Keeneland Oct. 28; works say he can run a but Eurlon just 7% with first-time starting 2-year-olds the past five years and he could be intimidated breaking from the rail.

Goldcents 11% with first-time starting 2-year-olds; this is the first foal out of a stakes-winning dam who banked $243K and romped in her first two starts at Sunland Park; he has tons of work so should be fit enough and the past five years Hollendorfer has a 21% strike rate and $1.78 ROI with first-time starting juveniles; not out of the question.

Midnight Lute 10% when it comes to first-time starting 2-year-olds; dam was unraced; three sibs are a combined 1-0-1 from 22 starts and the win came in a $10K maiden claimer; nice work Oct. 29 but the past five years Desormeaux just 6 for 140 (6%) with first-time starting juveniles; would be a surprise.

See Flat On for the solid sire stats; this is the first foal out of an unraced mare; her mom won her second start going long on the inner track at Aqueduct and never raced again; more than one nice work but the barn has just a single win from the last 32 first-time starting 2-year-olds the have led over the past five years; probably not.

First from Baffert has an experience edge over the rest of the field and his runner-up finish two back was flattered when the winner, his stablemate, finished second in the Grade 1 American Pharoah and third in the G1 Breeders' Cup Juvenile; another one of his stablemates beat him when he finished second as the chalk in his latest at Los Al; blinkers off and Hernandez stays on; big shot.

 That was a nice debut and the horse that won the race, another Baffert rocket, came back to just miss as the heavy chalk in a first-level allowance race with a $100K claiming option at Keeneland (93 Beyer) Nov. 4; McCarthy just okay with first-time start ing 2-year-olds and has better numbers with ones making their second start in MSW races - 16% the past five years; easy to imagine this guy taking a step forward here and it is encouraging to see Prat accept the call; an obvious contender.

 Ghostzapper 11% with first-time starting 2-year-olds; dam won her 2-year-old debut going long on turf at Saratoga and was retired after finishing 9th in the Grade 3 Jessamine in her second start at Keeneland; one of two sibs is a winner with all four of her wins coming going long in lower level claiming races; looking in other directions. -Randy Goulding
